

Royal Caribbean International

Writing the Waves on Freedom of the Seas
 Hosted by Award-Winning Author, Patricia Charpentier
 May 12 - 19, 2013 – Seven-Night Western Caribbean Cruise

Get ready to be wowed! Join our group as we sail from Port Canaveral on this nautical wonder! From the moment you board, you'll see something spectacular—the ship! She's filled with an ice skating rink, (they provide the skates), a rock climbing wall, in-line skating track, billiard room, miniature golf course, a full-size basketball court and the Royal Promenade, a bustling boulevard where you'll find charming shops, a 24 hour cafe, colorful street performers, lively fairs with a couple of parades during the week and much more—something for all ages from two to ninety-two. You can do it all or do nothing at all; it's up to you!

During the two days at sea when not in one of our four fabulous ports of call—Labadee, Haiti (Royal Caribbean's private island); Falmouth, Jamaica; George Town, Grand Cayman; and Cozumel, Mexico—we'll have a great time learning to write interesting personal and family history stories. This is not your ordinary writing course. You'll be amazed at the fun you'll have and what you'll accomplish while at sea. No previous writing experience is required. For more info about the writing workshop, contact Patricia at writingyourlife@cfl.rr.com or 321.279.1791. For specific info about this trip, go to:
